

Hand Arendall Harrison Sale LLC partner, Leslie D. Sheekley is one of the few attorneys in Northwest Florida who is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in Business Litigation. She is also AV-Preeminent® rated, which is the highest rating attainable from the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Registry for lawyers. Ms. Sheekley practices law in both state and federal courts throughout Okaloosa, Walton, Bay, Santa Rosa and Escambia counties.

She has more than 30 years of litigation and trial experience in complex business matters and insurance defense. She also has extensive experience and oversees the firm's practice representing condominium and homeowners' associations in their operations, contract disputes, and covenant enforcement. Ms. Sheekley is a frequent presenter of continuing education and certification classes for association managers and board members.

After graduating from the University of Florida and the Levin College of Law, Leslie practiced law in Arizona where she met her husband, an Air Force Officer. Upon his retirement to civilian work at Hurlburt Field, they relocated with their two children in 2001 to the Emerald Coast. Leslie is grateful for the opportunity of a diverse and challenging law practice balanced with a rich and full family life that includes community and volunteer involvement.
